

Teacher's Day Celebration

On the account of teacher's day on 5th September 2018, the members of the student council organized a special event for all the teachers in the evening.

Each teacher was presented with a handmade greeting cards with personalised messages by their beloved students to invite them for the event.

Students' Council members were gathered in room 008 for preparation and welcomed all the teachers who graced the event with their presence on Students' Council's invitation. The event commenced at 4:30 pm and started off with a prayer by the host of the evening, Jaswant Pardeshi the Sports Secretary of SPIT who gave a warm welcome to all the teachers and expressed gratitude towards them for the important part they play in all our lives and to get the celebration started.

Host of the Evening Mr. Jaswant Pardeshi welcoming faculty members

The band members for the special evening were Adinath Phene lead vocalist, Aalap Khanolkar with the mandolin and keyboard , Kaustubh Toraskar with tabla and cajon and Pratik Pai also as vocalist and guitarist welcomed the teachers with their melodious tunes and to set the mood for the evening.

After the Spectacular opening act by the band which was relished and adored by everyone present in the room, there was an exhilarating open mic. The first to come up on the stage was our very own Govind Haldankar sir, who gave us a small insight into the world of a composer and how a composer in the ancient times would take various aspects, such as the mood, the tempo and the how to make a connection with audience.

Prof. Govind Haldankar Performing Connecting with Audience

Post which The General Secretary of S.P.I.T. , Sahil Krishnadas gave a heartfelt speech expressing his gratitude towards the teachers – the essential part of the value creation chain at S.P.I.T and plans for the upcoming year. The idea about the college mascot which was brained stormed by Student council members and the creative team for weeks was presented to the Principle and all the teachers. The proposed idea was highly appreciated by all present in the room along with Special acknowledgement by Principal ma'am.

The final event of the day was a karaoke for the teachers. To make the karaoke more enjoyable refreshments were served and also the teachers were presented with a list of songs, which comprised of many native and foreign songs. The first person to sing was none other than our principal, Dr. Prachi Gharpure. This was followed by all the teachers showcasing their singing talents. The Celebration with karaoke went till wee hours of the evening where all the teachers had great time enjoying the songs after having busy schedule in the morning.

Principal ma'am starting the karaoke session

