

Dandiya Night-2018

Inculcating a sense of culture and unity is the essence of any Indian festival and Navratri is a portrait of colour, action, music and togetherness. As nine days of non-stop fun, dance and festivities was around the corner, S.P.I.T. Students' Council celebrated Dandiya Night on 17th October 2018 with the help of perfect traditional attires, the dolled-up look and dancing skills. Preparations for the same had started almost a week ago, starting with invitations, décor and ultimately ending with the night that saw a riot of colours and an eclectic mix of music which will make its revellers remember the joyous celebrations for years to come.

The day of bonding, where the gathering, the celebration and the dance etched a unique combination signifying the diversity of Indian culture in student. After the high tea arrangements for faculty and staff, and after normal day of exhausting lectures, as dusk set in, students of all branches and all years assembled in the Sardar Patel Sabhagriha (Quadrangle) teeming with anticipation and excitement, draped in breathtaking traditional attire.

At 5:30 pm, the speakers blasted the first tunes for the night, commanding the students to forget everything about their monotonous lives and get lost in the world of festivity. The lights were dimmed to ensure a thrilling atmosphere where everyone danced to the rhythmic Dandiya beats! The fun and frolic event of Dandiya night commenced with the beats of a garba song dedicated to Goddess Durga.

All the students, teaching and non-teaching faculty present there joined in the celebration, tapping to the spectacular music. A strong bond was visualized between teachers and students. It was huge family tapping their toes with the rejoicing music.

The DJ made sure the visitors glued to the floor all through the evening with Traditional dandiya music along with some peppy Bollywood dandiya numbers. Drawing from their mouth, the very familiar phrase: "once more!"

The delightful sight of energetic light-footed young boys and girls swirling in graceful rhythmic garba and enthusiastically playing Dandiya evoked admiration among all present there. Everyone soaked in the moment together, irrespective of whether they were seniors, first year students, faculty or our Principal Dr. Prachi ma'am herself! The slight drizzle towards the end of the event added to the fun and lightened up the atmosphere.

The night ended with winners taking away prizes, Priyanka Lubal (BE Computers) and Arth Patel (BE Computers) won the title of Best Dressed.

Along with them, Best Dancer was awarded to Pradhuman Singh (SE EXTC) & Urvi Bhanushali (TE IT).

The widest smiles shone on the faces of the final year students who made sure to make the most of the night.
