

Freshers' Party 2019

The newest members of the college were welcomed with a bang at the Fresher's Party organized by the Student Council in collaboration with Oculus and Mudra on 9th October 2019, manifesting youth and enthusiasm at its full flow. Jovial smiles and high spirits marked the welcome party for the students which was aptly called Fresher's 2K19. After a long, tiring day in college, the Quadrangle roared to life as the students gathered with enthusiasm and excitement, eagerly waiting to see what was in store for them.

The event was set to begin in the evening right after classes. The students gathered in the quadrangle in herds eagerly waiting for it to begin with pulsating ambiance, flashing lights and foot-tapping music, the party began with a blast. To set everyone in party mode, Mudra (College Band) took center stage and performed a couple of crowd favorites like Bohemian Rhapsody, Mehbooba Mehbooba, Bulleya , etc and the entire crowd sang along with them and clapped to the beats. Joy and happiness could be seen in students of each course at the college. They were having the time of their lives.

Up next were the Thespians (Drama Club- Mudra) all set on stage, bringing something which was never seen and experienced before, “This Is My Show with Arnub Goswami” bringing Republic TV to live at Sardar Patel Sabhagriha. But unfortunately, due to the sudden rains, they had to stop their performance in the middle, which was shot and posted later on Mudra’s Youtube Channel. In spite of some rain, their spirits were not dampened. A sensational dance in the form of a flash-mob performance at the Entrance by the members of Oculus, Student Council and MUDRA left the crowd cheering and applauding with thrill. Their electrifying moves left the mob enthralled and pumped them up for the gala night ahead.

As soon as the rain subsided, the event continued in its full splendor. It kick-started with the Mr. and Ms. Fresher competition giving the freshers, a chance to display their talent. The esteemed panel of judges included Mr.Sagar Rana, a professional dancer and choreographer, and Mr.Rohit Salian, a renowned rapper. Fantastic performances ranging from music, dance, monologue, and standup comedy left the audience in awe and the judges muddled. Amidst the chorus of each branch's support for their respective representatives, the results were announced. Manish Jha, an MCA student, whose rap had the audience tap their feet to his beat, was crowned "Mr. Fresher" and Sayali Ayre, from the ETRX department, whose graceful dance sent the audience into a frenzy bagged the title of "Ms. Fresher".

Now, it was the time for Student Council launching its official Mascot "Phoenix" long with its fests Oculus and Spoorthi and newly formed clubs like Mudra and Coding Club. Unnati Dogra - Cultural Secretary, launched the Plastic Ban, Fit India Movement, and Plantation Drive. Oculus had their merchandise give-away on the basis of a social media competition on Best Pick-Up line. The bar was raised, the vibe was set and everyone was hyped up to see what's next.

And it was time for the royal rumble of SPIT, the Interbranch Dance the most awaited event of the night. The IT dance troupe set the stage on fire with their dance moves. The MCA department had a blend of salsa with freestyle leaving the audience spellbound. The EXTC dance troupe raised the heat of the competition by their energetic dance moves. The ETRX department charmed the audience with their lively moves. The dance group from the Computer department left the audience in splits and entertained them through the humor incorporated in their performance. And finally, after a neck-to-neck round of amazing performances, the Computers department took home the Fresher's Cup. The feeling of smashing victory was visible as the students of the Computer branch ran to the stage and danced triumphantly. Siddesh Sonawane and Apoorva Chaudhari from TE COMPS won the Best Choreographers for the splendid performance by Comps branch.

In the concluding moments of the night, the audience swayed to the music by the DJ and the happiness that reflected from them definitely left everyone pleased. This night indeed made loads of memories and bonds that shall be treasured for long.

To Quote our General Secretary, Muskan Sahu – “Freshers’ is one of the biggest events of the Student Council which not only the FE’s but the whole college looks forward to. This is the place where we have exceptional talent along with emotions, laughter and a lot of happiness, everything under one roof ”.
