SPIT success in National and International Competitions (2017-18 to 2019-20)

Introduction:

S.P.I.T has always motivated students to participate in technical and non-technical activities including hackathons, business competitions and sports activities. S.P.I.T. believes that participating in competitions gives students opportunities which provide them with the right exposure and realistic outlook towards the competitive nature of real life in such a short span of time.

S.P.I.T. encourages such participation as students recurrently go through a series of brainstorming sessions, rapid problem solving sequences, activity-based learning(ABL), SCOPE modules by various academic as well as industry experts and experience a totally diverse form of learning, which they usually don't practice in their schools or colleges. This competitive learning enables the students to perform well. Students of S.P.I.T. have participated and won at various SIH, IICDC Texas Instruments, ACCS, KPMG, National Entrepreneurship Challenge, TATA Crucible Hackathon, Code for Good, IEEE Xtreme Programming etc. Students have also participated at competitions held by reputed institutions such as IIM's, ISB, VIT, NIT's and IIT's. The faculty has played an instrumental role in constantly guiding and mentoring students at every step of the way and providing them with all the support for helping them to succeed and grow as responsible individuals, increasing their skill set and making them ready for all the real world challenges.

The following are the factors contributing to success of SPIT at various national and international competitions

- Promoting entrepreneurship and innovation skill :

Hackathons, Business plan competitions constitute an important element in entrepreneurial support systems, and are a powerful force in driving entrepreneurial activity. Thus with this ideology, Students of S.P.I.T. have constantly focussed on innovation and thinking with an entrepreneurial mindset along with making sure there's market for the idea. Thus, helping one to prepare a solid solution to debut in competitions and hackathons.

- Collaborate under pressure and Multi-task

The learning environment and faculty at S.P.I.T. have always pushed students to participate and showcase their skills along with having a good academic performance. Thus this has enabled and taught students how to work efficiently, how to work as a team and how to put ones skills to work in a quick-turn environment. This quality has enabled students to perform well in hackathons and competitions where skills such as working under pressure, time management and ability to think on ones feet is absolutely necessary and essential.

- Technology and business acumen

The diverse curriculum at S.P.I.T. has enabled students to learn about the current technology in holistic thoughts imbibed , Business knowledge and industry standards through its SCOPE courses, ABL activities and it's up to date curriculum. This has enabled students to provide exceptional solutions to problems which are not only sustainable but also market appropriate. The business acumen along with the technical knowledge makes students of S.P.I.T. stand out at national and international competitions and hackathons
