Technical Paper Presentation competition-2019-20

Even Sem

Date: 15th May 2020

This Competition was conducted in all the departments on 15th May 2020 using online google meet in respective departments as per the timings of judges. Eight judges evaluated inter departmental competition across the departments. Evaluation of Presentation was done using assessment rubrics given to the by R & D Committee. Also parallel assessment was done on technical paper written by students. Judges evaluated anonymous research paper to hide the identity of the students and mentors. All final year students of respective departments participated in this completion. Best 3 ranked groups selected as winners from MCA department and best first ranked group from Category II. This competition gave a live experience of writing the research paper along with presenting the same. To check originality of the paper, paper was checked by each mentor for the plagiarism.
