

ELECTRONICS AND TELECOMMUNICATION ENGINEERING

The Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering established in 2005, with a clear vision to create wealth of knowledge and develop unique skill set for the students so that they can gain expertise in various areas in personal and professional career.

Highlights

- Highly qualified and professionally skilled dedicated faculties.
- Most experienced and Diverse Expertise faculties.
- Publication in reputed international journals and international conferences.
- MoU signed with various companies.
- Initiation of consultancy.
- Collaborative research with other organizations.
- State of art laboratory.
- Computing facilities with latest open source software's.
- Focused on emerging technologies in curriculum.
- Match between curriculum & societal interests.

Activities

- Initiatives for life-long learning.
- Organizational skills are developed through various forum like IEEE, IETE and FETS.
- Students participate in technical activities like Eyantra, Texas Instruments, Robocon etc.
- Extra curricular and co-curricular activities are encouraged.
- Student – Alumni connect initiative.
- 70% students opted for six months long internship program to build student industry-connect.
- Our campus recruiters are Sony Ericsson India Ltd, CISCO, Microsoft, IBM, Deloitte, L&T, Tech Mahindra, Infosys, etc.